- Alderman Johnston asked about ordinances and sound levels as they relate to peace disturbances. Charlie’s Roadhouse has been leaving their back door open and neighbors are complaining about the noise. Chief Starbuck is scheduling a meeting with the owner to discuss the complaints. The current ordinances do not specify acceptable sound levels so it really is contingent upon what someone finds offensive. The police do respond to the complaints but many times the complainant doesn’t want to put their name on a formal complaint.
