

The City's road maintenance contractor will continue asphalt overlays next week. Road disruptions are expected while the contractor install the new asphalt surface and while trucks and equipment enter and exit the work site. The City appreciates the public's cooperation while we continue to improve our transportation system.