- Mr. Tyson asked if there was a turn around. Staff stated that technically there wasn't from a right of way standpoint. Ms. Bruner said anything can turn around in the parking lot.
 - Mr. Dimmitt asked if it was built as a restaurant and Dennis Shrout (property owner) said he thought it was but it had been vacant for over ten years. Staff stated that all the records they have show it as M-1.
 - Ms. Bruner told the Commission that she got bad legal advice and that she would have found a different place if she would've known it was going to be this big of a deal.
 - More discussion was had on the history of the building, zoning of the property and precedent. It was agreed that no matter the history it is zoned M-1 at this time and there is no legal non-conforming standing because it's been vacant for over twelve months.
 - Commissioners questioned how she got this far along and signed a lease without checking everything if she's been in the industry for this long. Ms. Bruner again said she had bad legal advice.
 - Mr. Shelton asked if she had the approvals from surrounding property owners notarized. Ms. Bruner said that she didn't have them notarized but that staff sent out notifications and nobody showed up.
 - Mr. Greene asked what her financial stake was at this point. Ms. Bruner said $40,000 but she said that she only cleaned the place up.
